

US Army Corps of Engineers®
Baltimore District

Colonel Peter W. Mueller Commander & District Engineer

Colonel Peter W. Mueller assumed command of the Baltimore District July 14, 2006.

Prior to his Baltimore assignment, he attended the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Fort McNair, Washington, D.C., and graduated in June with a Master of Science degree in National Resource Strategy.

Mueller's major command and staff experience includes assignments as the Engineer Colonel's Assignment Officer at U.S. Army Human Resources Command, Alexandria, Va.; Commander of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Charleston District in South Carolina; Military Assistant to the Under Secretary of the Army and as a Congressional Staff Officer in the Pentagon and Army Congressional Fellow on Capitol Hill.

Other assignments include service in the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Ky.; U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Wilmington District, N.C.; 24th Infantry Division (Mechanized), Fort Stewart, Ga. and Saudi Arabia; and the 1st Infantry Division (Forward) in Germany.

He is a 1983 graduate of Army Officer Candidate School, Fort Benning, Ga. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Utah and a Master of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is a registered professional engineer in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Among his military decorations are the Legion of Merit (two awards); Bronze Star Medal; Meritorious Service Medal (four awards); Parachutist Badge; Air Assault Badge; and Ranger Tab.